To whom it may concern,

As President of The Tuesday Group, I would recommend Patrick Barrett for a position with your company. I have worked with Patrick for the past two years and have found him to be a reliable and positive employee. Patrick has always taken his assignments seriously and has always put forth his best in delivering his work. He has a very mature approach and a strong work ethic which made him a pleasure to work with.

Patrick's traditional illustration abilities were also very valuable in our primarily digital environment. From quick storyboarding of a project to creating comic style artwork for our Spy Game online sweepstakes, Patrick's talent was greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Scott Seward
President
